PLANS CUT OF $7 PER CAPITA

Chairman Fordney Fixes Next Three Years' Loss At $790,330,000.

TO ATTACK MEASURE

Ways and Means Minority Brands It As Rich Man's Legislation—Estimated Gains and Reductions.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The nation's tax bill will be cut $193,640,000 this fiscal year, $377,790,000 in the calendar year 1922 and the total net reduction will reach $790,330,000 in 1923, Chairman Fordney, of the Ways and Means Committee, asserted today in the majority report, explaining the majority report, explaining the Tax Revision bill framed by Republican committeemen.

Without disputing these figures, Democrats of the House prepared in causus for a broadside assault on the Republican measure, planning to brand it as a rich man's bill. Their views were to be incorporated in a minority analysis attacking the means by which reductions were achieved.

Meantime the Rules Committee reported a rule to put the bill through the House at 3 p. m. Saturday. Debate will begin at 11 a. m. tomorrow the measure having been formally reported today by the Ways and Means Committee, with the Democrats voting solidly against it.

Chairman Fordney estimated reductions in levies, some of which will not become fully effective until 1923, as follows:

Repeal of excess profits January 1, 1922, $450,000,000.

Reduction of surtax rates on individual incomes to 32 per cent., January 1, 1922, $90,000,000.

Increased exemptions of heads of families to $2,500 for income not in excess of $5,000, $40,000,000.

Additional exemptions for dependents increased to $400 from $200, $30,000,000.

Repeal of all transportation taxes January 1, 1922, $262,000,000.

Repeal of tax on beverages, $60,000,000.

Reduction of taxes on candy, $8,000,000.

Sporting goods, $2,000,000.

Furs, $4,510,000.

Socalled luxury taxes, $15,000,000.

Estimated gains in taxes beginning with the calendar year 1923 are given as follows:

Increase of corporation income tax from 10 to 12 1-2 per cent., January 1, 1922, $133,750,000.

License to sellers of soft drinks, $10,000,000.

Tax of six cents on cereal beverages, $12,000,000.

Tax of five cents on carbonic acid gas, $2,000,000.

Taxes on fruit juices, still drinks and fountain syrups, $12,000,000.

Substitution of manufacturers' taxes on toilet preparations and proprietary medicines for existing stamp taxes, $8,000,000.

The total loss in revenue is thus placed at $968,080,000 and the total gains at $177,750,000, leaving the net loss of $790,330,000 estimated by the report.

U. S. Has 5,735,000 Workers Now Idle.

There are now 5,735,000 persons unemployed in the United States, according to the statement yesterday of Secretary of Labor Davis.

The statement was made in response to a resolution by Senator McCormick, of Illinois, adopted by the Senate recently.

Davis stated that the figures were based on the best estimates from all available sources. He said that the department did not have any estimate of the number of unemployed former service men called for in the resolution.

Nominate Bristow for House.

Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 17.—The Republicans of aMthews and Middlesex Counties have nominated R. S. Bristow, of Urbanna, as their candidate for House of Delegates.

STATE NEWS

Norfolk.—Almost two weeks ahead of the usual time the first bale of new cotton for the 1921-22 season arrived in Norfolk Monday morning. It was received by Harris, Jones and Co., cotton factors and exporters, and will be shipped to Liverpool on the steamship Barrymore. The new bale was shipped from Augusta, Ga., and was graded "middling."

Newport News.—Eight thousand one hundred and twenty-four meals and beds have been given seamen by the Y. M. C. A. Sailors' Rest since February 1, as a result of which the organization now has no funds with which to carry on its work. Most of the men helped were foreigners with "first papers" and membership in the American Seamen's Union.

Roanoke.—The annual Roanoke booster party will leave the city on August 23 for a three-day trip over Virginia. The party will travel in a special Pullman train and will carry a twenty-three-piece band to furnish music at the various stops. More than one hundred prmoinent business men will make the trip.

Newport News.—Petitions calling for the removal of City Manager L. G. Thom on the grounds that he is a high priced man, was secured from the "outside," and his office could be filled by some Newport News man at less money are being circulated in East End. Just how far the petitions have gone or who is circulating them could not be learned this morning.

Fredericksburg.—J. W. Payne, of Stafford County, has a very unusual stone ring which he plowed upon his farm. The ring was apparently carved from an amber colored stone, and was in the shape of a signet ring. Mr. Payne stated the ring was found on a spot where the Sixteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry camped in winter quarters in 1863. The jewel is quite a curiosity.

Lynchburg.—The William H. Folkes scholarships at the University of Virginia will be used the coming year by two Lynchburg students and two from Campbell county—Fendall L. Gregory, of Lynchburg, and Mike Jones, Jr., of Campbell county, having been reappointed and Preston Nowlin, of Lynchburg, and W. M. Bass, Jr., of Evington, newly appointed by the committee yesterday.

Danville.—Sickness in the family is an excuse for speeding, Mayor Harry Wooding ruled so today in dismissing a charge brought against R. L. Travis, a road foreman, who on Saturday passed through Danville at a rate of 50 miles an hour. Police Officer O. T. Cook seeing him, pursued him and overtook him five miles from the city and hauled him with a drawn revolver. Travis brought with him today a county physician who testified to the critical condition of his wife, whereon the mayor destroyed the warrant, commending the officer at the same time.

Newport News.—After many cars have been smashed up and several persons injured, Warwick and York County authorities are on edge to find out why these accidents occur on their highways. Just last Sunday there were four or more accidents and while no one was seriously hurt they had hair-breath escapes. Motorists are most interested in the state regulations concerning autos on the roads, and every effort is being made to disseminate the news.

Newport News.—A delegation of 20 business men from Newport News, Norfolk and Portsmouth will leave here September 12 for the meeting of the Hampton Roads Port Commission in Norfolk and Bristol, September 13 and 14, respectively, according to announcement made today by the secretary of the commission. Former Governor Henry C. Stuart, E. Lee Trinkle, Democratic nominee for Governor and C. Bascomb Slemp, Republican representative from the Ninth Virginia District, expect to attend the meeting.

Norfolk.—A letter from Police Justice Bruce Simmons, denying rumors that fees attached to his office amounted to several thousands of dollars per month and giving detailed statement showing that the fees and salary combined over a period of two years amounted to a little over $12,000, was read to the council and then ordered tabled until the city manager can get similar statements from the city attorney and the judge of the Juvenile court as to the fees attached to their offices.

SHOPPERS JAM STORES

Dollar Day a Big Success In Every Particular—Much Buying.

BARGAINS GO QUICK

Large Crowds From Surrounding Counties Participate In Sale—Due To Boosters' Trip.

Living up to the record of bigger and better every sale, the merchants are today celebrating the mid-summer DOLLAR DAY SALE and indications at noon were that today would go down in the mercantile history of the city as the greatest Dollar Day sale ever conducted here.

Weather indications early this morning pointed to the conclusion that Dollar Day would be featured by rain throughout the daylight hours. However, Jupiter Pluvius decided to be good throughout the morning however, and the crowds took the hint and literally mobbed the greater portion of the stores participating.

Every Dollar Day, since the inauguration of these great bargain feasts has been bigger than the preceding one and the sale today is without parallel in the history of local merchandising. Counters that were piled high with Dollar Day bargains were cleaned off within a few minutes after the opening of the stores and a corps of workers were kept busy replenishing the dwindling supplies.

And the sale today is being conducted with less confusion and less quibbling than any sale of this nature heretofore. Every shopper in the greater portion of the stores appeared to be perfectly in accord with the spirit of the day and hundreds of larger bundles were in evidence throughout the length of King street, during the entire day.

That the Boosters' Trip which was conducted for the purpose of advertising Dollar Day last Friday was a success was also evidenced by the fact that many residents of the rural districts were in attendance at the sale today. Many of these expressed themselves surprised and very much pleased over the [illegible] bargains that are being [illegible] when they left for home at a late hour today, they were loaded with bundles purchased from the merchants who have made Dollar Day a success.

SUMMERS WINS LAURELS ON ATHLETIC FIELD

Francis L. Summers, son of Alderman and Mrs. C. J. W. Summers, of this city, who is captain of the Virginia Military Institute team this year, has won signal honors in athletics this past season and the Lynchburg News says.

It is very seldom that a cadet wins his monogram in all four major sports, yet that is what Francis L. Summers did last year. He plays at left tackle and has been a member of the all-South Atlantic team for two years. Taken all in all he is one of the best athletes evre turned out at a Southern institution. This is his fourth year on the cadet eleven.

MURDER LAST NIGHT

Unidentified Negro Killed at Dance Hall in Arlington County

An unidentified negro was shot in the stomach during an altercation in front of the Anthony dance hall, South Washington, Arlington county, shortly before 9 o'clock last night. He was pronounced dead upon his arrival at Emergency Hospital where taken by the ambulance. The body was removed to the District morgue. The assassin is unknown to police.

Special Policeman Thomas A. Jackson asserted that he was in the dance hall when he heard a shot. Rushing out, said he found the wounded negro.

ROB CASH TILL OF $19.00 LADS ARRAIGNED TODAY

Two white boys giving their ages as twelve and fourteen years, respectively, were arraigned in the police court today on a charge of being implicated in the theft of $19 from the store of a King street merchant August 2. One of the boys reputedly confessed to the crime, but said he only got $16. He divided with his pal, the fourteen year old boy, and they both spent the money. Their first taste of high life was a trip to Glen Echo that night followed by the purchase of numerous articles that appealed to their fancy. The parents of one of the lads was present and at the request of Justice Snow he reimbursed the shopkeeper for the money he had received of the plunder and was ordered to report to the court once a week. The other lad is being held till his father appears to take charge of him. Both boys admitted to the court that they had been in trouble before. The boy who stole the money slipped in the store just as the proprietor walked out to see someone. Both boys were captured yesterday by Policeman Carlton Padgett.

TRINKLE WON BY 22,691

Received 86,680 Votes In Democratic Primary To 63,989 for Tucker.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 17.—The official returns from the primary of August 2, certified yesterday by the board of canvassers, show that out of a total vote of 150,669 cast, E. Lee Trinkle, the successful candidate for the Democratic nomination for the governorship, received 86,680, while his opponent, H. St. George Tucker, received 63,989, Mr. Trinkle's majority being 22,691. Mr. Trinkle carried the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth Congressional Districts, the Second, Eighth and Tenth going to Mr. Tucker. Mr. Trinkle carried sixty-six of the 100 counties in the State and fourteen of the 22 cities.

It is interesting to note, however, that Trinkle's big vote was rolled up in the Fifth, Sixth and Ninth Congressional Districts, out of which he came with a lead of 22,689, which, subtracted from his total majority in the State, leaves him the exceedingly close margin of two votes over Tucker. The women's vote, which is said to have been somewhat heavier than had been anticipated, is given to Trinkle almost in its entirety. The post-mortem experts are sure that the victor may thank them for his nomination.

For the lieutenant-governorship nomination, Senator West won over his nearest rival, Mr. Gunn, by 11,437. The candidates for second place stood in the following order; West, 55,997; Gunn, 44,560; Gilpin, 30,583; Fitzhugh, 5,544.

Berkley D. Adams, candidate for the state corporation commission nomination, as successor to himself, had a majority of 60,804 over E. C. Folkes, of Richmond. Mr. Adams received 100,492 votes, and Mr. Folkes had 39,688.

Two Postmasters Named.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Two Virginia postmasters were named today, the Postoffice Department announced. They are Luey L. Butler, Brookhill, Henrico County, in place of E. C. Floyd, resigned; Walter W. Hankins, at Ingram, Halifax County, Essie Strange, resigned.

Martin, Fairfax county. The trip will be made in automobiles. It is expected that a large number of members of both classes will attend and an enjoyable evening is promised all who attend.

Robs Autoist Who Stops To Give Aid

Endeavoring to assist a pedestrian who had fallen in the road a short distance in front of the automobile which he was driving, near the old Alexandria race track, Bennett Robertson, of 105 Second street northeast, was attacked by the man whom he believed ill and by his confederate and robbed of $40 in cash.

Robertson and a railroad detective who passed a short time afterward searched the surrounding territory, but were unable to locate the highwaymen, who escaped into a small clump of woods.

Robertson was driving toward this city in company with several friends when he noticed a pedestrian a short distance in front of the car stagger and fall. He stopped near car and went to the man's assistance, but as he drew near the man suddenly leaped to his feet and a second man confronted him with a drawn revolver.

Police headquarters was notified of the holdup, and an alarm was sent to the police authorities of Alexandria.

Expensive Joy Ride; Damage Machine $247.

Four colored men who took a joy ride in a machine of Charles Dean May 7 and damaged the machine to the extent of $247, were arraigned in the police court today and a continuance in the case granted for a week in order that they may obtain an estimate of the cost and have the car restored to the order it was in when it was taken.

HOME BREW IS LEGALIZED

Manufacture of Own Liquor Permitted Unless Sale Is Intended.

"PRIVATE" DWELLINGS

Change In Prohibition Law Is Supported By Volstead—"Juggernaut" Says Walsh.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Thirsty individuals who brew their own will be more or less protected by the latest amendment to the Willis-Campbell Beer bill, which was approved today by the House. They must, however, operate their stills for their private consumption, as under the amendment warrants for searching a home may not be issued "unless there is reason to believe such dwelluor is manufactured for sale or ling is used as a place in which liqsold."

Before approving the Judiciary Committee's course in emasculating the Stanley amendment the House concurred in a number of minor Senate amendments. The debate which was unusually spirited, produced the charge by Representative Walsh, Republican, of Massachusetts that the Anti-Saloon League operates as a juggernaut, riding over Congress at its will.

The Stanley amendment as originally drawn prohibited revenue agents searching, without first procuring a search warrant, the person, baggage, property and homes of individuals suspected of violating the National Prohibition law. The House modification applies only to "private dwellings," and agents may search baggage, automobiles and other property without obtaining a warrant.

The House modification provided that search warrants for private dwellings may be obtained only when there was reason to believe that it was used as a "place in which liquor is manufactured for sale or sold."

However, the House, either through intent not to be too hard on the "home brewers" or through disagreement with the viewpoint of Representative Fields, defeated his amendment by a vote of 96 to 54.

The vote on adopting the House substitute amendment for the Stanley search and seizure amendment was 120 to 55, less than half of the membership being present.

Representative Volstead claimed that the Stanley amendment would practically nullify the Prohibition act.

Representative Bourke Cockran of New York, contended that under the Constitution, any search of a man's person or property without a search warrant is illegal and unconstitutional.

At the outset of the debate today Representative Stafford, of Wisconsin, said it had been announced by the Republican floor leader that the War Finance Corporation bill would take precedence over the Anti-beer bill in the House. "Why had members been misinformed?" he inquired.

"Unfortunately, the gentleman was not a member of the last Congress," said Representative Walsh, of Massachusetts. "If he had been he would know that anything touching prohibition takes precedence over anything else in Congress and that everybody else must give way when the juggernaut operated by Mr. Wayne B. Wheeler, of the Anti-Saloon League, is to be put in operation."

Representative John Philip Hill, of Maryland, aided in the fight against the Anti-beer bill, but his efforts were unavailing. He told the House that the search and seizure proposed, as well as the ukase against the use of beer as medicine, was unconstitutional and he had no doubt would be so declared eventually by the courts.

Detroit, Aug. 17.—State police men today continued their efforts to halt the flow of liquor from Ontario into Michigan as Canadian officials took a definite step in an attempt to plug the leak in the border. Acting on orders of N. M. Mosseau, Windsor License Inspector, provincial authorities began to prepare a new test case on rum shipments, following the seizure yesterday of liquor in Windsor.

Word from Toronto was to the effect that W. E. Raney, Attorney General for Ontario, was not satisfied with a recent Windsor court ruling that provincial authorities could not interfere with shipments of liquor from the province into out side territory.

CLEARS UP 17 MURDERS

Story of Italian In New York Leads To Arrest of Six.

TELLS OF $200,000 FUND

Terrified By Threats, Fontano Tells of Fund To Protect Thugs—Gambling Back of Feud.

New York, Aug. 17.—Information which the police believe will clear up 17 gang murders which have occurred in New York, Detroit and Avon-by-the-Sea, N. J., was given to detectives last night by Bartolo Fontano, an Italian barber. Terrified by secret threats of "being baked in an oven," Rontano gave himself up to the police and was charged with homicide. Six other men were arrested on Fontano's information, five charged with homicide and the sixth held as a material witness.

The police spent several hours cro examining the men and sent to other cities infromation which they said would bring about several arrests before morning. Seven of the murders in which the prisoners are said to have been concerned occurred here and nine in Detroit. The other occurred in New Jersey.

Fontana told the detectives that the gang which had threatened him and of which he had once been a member had a fund of $200,000 to protect its members who were caught while carrying out its orders. He told the police, they said, that he had lived for most of the past two years in Detroit and that he had killed his former pal, Carmello Caiozzo, on a farm near Avon-by-the-Sea on July 30 on orders from "the gang."

An arrest at Asbury Park, N. J., last Tuesday is believed by the police to have a definite connection with disclosures made by Fontano.

The murders, according to the police, have all occurred in Italian circles, where a veil of secrecy has protested the criminals. Fontano is said to have designated a man known as Francisco Puma as "the brains of the gang." Puma is one of those under arest.

Police said the murders, gang-feuds and assaults had grown out of efforts by men both here and in Italy to control the "lottery policy" game and a card game known as "zechinnetto."

Assistant District Attorney Brothers last night declared there was no evidence to show that the murders have any connection with "Camorra" activities. Police further supported his statement by declaring that the men arrested last night were members of a group known as the "Bonventre gang," which had its inception at the murder in Brooklyn 15 years ago of a baker by that name, whose body was burned in an oven.

Fontano told the police that his former pal, Caiozza, years ago in Italy, shot a brother of one of the men arrested last night, and that when Caiozzo came here from Italy he was marked for death. Fontano confessed, the police said, to having killed Caiozzo with a shotgun.

Fontano said it was the custom of the gang to employ one man to do several killings and then cause him to disappear mysteriously lest he should prove a menace. He said a friend had warned him that the gang intended to throw him alive into the oven of a Brooklyn baker. He insisted that he gave himself up because his life was endangered so long as he remained free.

STEALS AUTOMOBILE

Machine Was Property of G. T. Coder, of Washington

A Ford sedan, the property of George T. Coder, of 3131 Eleventh street, northwest, Washington, who is a clerk in the general offices of the Southern Railway, Washington, was stolen in front of the Fairfax Apartment, King and Columbus streets, early this morning. The machine was parked by Mr. Coder at midnight last night and its theft was not discovered till about eight o'clock this morning.

A report of the theft has been made to the police. Mr. Coder was visiting Oscar Robbins, in the Fairfax.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Aug. 17.—In declining an invitation extended through Senator Overman, of North Carolina to spend the rest of the summer at Lake Kanuga, a resort in the Blue Ridge Mountains near Asheville, N. C., former President Wilson's household let it be known today that he is improving nicely at his S. Street home here, and thought it best to remain there.

Reports from recent visitors to the home of the former President indicate that his improvement since leaving the White House has been phenomenal. On March 4 when he left the Executive Mansion, Mr. Wilson had no use of his left arm and leg. He could not lift himself from his chair. Now he is using his left hand and visitors describe his rising to greet them without assistance and without apparent effort.

The former occupant of the White House is devoting his time to his family, his library and his health. For recreation he goes motoring into the suburbs of Washington and occasionally visits the local theatres.

Precludes Women.

Representative Alice Robertson, the sole member of the female sex in the House of Representatives, has delivered a body blow to the possibility of any woman becoming a member of the American delegation at the conference on disarmament and Far Eastern questions. The Congresswoman who was at the White House today put a damper upon all movements in this direction.

"If you will name a single woman in the United States," she said, "qualified to serve on such a conference, I will be for her strong. In the first place, a member of this conference must have wide knowledge of international law and in the second one must be thoroughly conversant with diplomatic procedure and usage.

But most important of all, a member must be able to sit tight and do but little talking, except when it is absolutely necessary. You show me any woman in the United States who possesses these qualifications, especially the last-named, and she is assured of my undivided support."

Plan Control of China.

Reports from Tokyo of consideration by the Japanese Cabinet of the reported plan of certain influential American statesmen for international control of China's finances and natural resource development were received in Washington with deep interest. The Tokyo reports did not indicate the attitude of Japan toward the plan but the presumption is that Japan would oppose any scheme that would work in opposition to her own aim for commercial supremacy in China.

While Secretary of Commerce Hoover and the State Department have denied authorship of various plans for international control of China, there is no question whatever but that some such plan is in the back of the heads of American officials.

Rt. Rev. Dr. Lloyd Elevated.

The news that comes to Washington by way of New York that the Rt. Rev. Arthur Selden Lloyd has now received a majority of votes in all orders of the Episcopal Church throughout the country assenting to him as Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New York, will be interesting to Alexandrians especially and to Virginians generally. Dr. Lloyd's first see was Virginia, to which he was raised to be Coadjutor. He only occupied that see for a year and resigned to become president of the Board of Missions for the whole Episcopal Church. He held this place until 1919 when he became rector of St. Bartholomew's Church in White Plains, N. Y., at one time he was located at Alexandria.

To Vote On Canal Tolls.

The Senate is going to take a vote on the Borah bill providing for free use of the Panama Canal by American coastwise vessels. But the vote will not be taken until October 10, despite the efforts on the part of its author, the Senator from Idaho, to secure its early passage. It is understood that President Harding was not convinced that this legislation was imperative enough to de-

Misspells Word "Credit" Builds Up Cash Business

A business man who operates a repair shop in this city in conversation today with a representative of the Gazette stated that he always carried in his place sign reading "No CREDITT." He says that invariably his attention is directed by customers to the fact that he has mispelled the word credit. He tells his customers that he misspells the word purposely and he knows positively that his sign has been read when they direct his attention to the wrong spelling. Otherwise he says the credit customers would not let him know that they are aware that he does business for cash only. The man says that the misspelled word has produced wonderful results and he has gotten his business down to almost a cash basis and all as a result of one misspelled word.

Five Dead, Seven Hurt--- After Negro Runs Amuck

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 17.—Five persons are dead as a result of disorders which began when a negro ran amuck this afternoon through the center of the business section. Seven are known to have been wounded, two of them probably fatally.

Patrolman W. W. Moore, an unidentified white man and a negro were killed in a shooting affray following the initial outbreak of the apparently crazed man.

Crowds of armed citizens immediately gathered at the scene of the shooting, but were dispersed after some difficulty by the police, who were assisted in their task by a sudden rainstorm. With the cessation of the rain, however, other crowds swiftly collected and armed bands began to patrol the streets, leading to fear on the part of the city authorities of racial clashes.

Details of the other two deaths had not been learned this evening.

Just before 10 o'clock tonight the police dispersed a mob of several hundred men who gathered about a street car and threatened negroes who were alighting from it.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

Who builds a church to God and not to fame, will never mark the marble with his name.

POPE.

DOLLAR DAY

Everything points to the biggest Dollar Day in Alexandria's history. The Booster Trip through the country brought in the visitors in crowds. The effective advertising of the merchants turned the trick in the city and the streets presented a gala appearance from early morn to press-time. Tonight will see thousands of tired but happy housewives who have reaped the harvest generously sown by our merchants.

STATE MEDICAL SCHOOL

The Gazette is on record as emphatically endorsing the retention of the Medical School at Charlottesville. The recent interview with President Alderman, published in these columns, it seems to us, is a clincher. The University is the proper situs for the state's medical college. From the trend of opinion as gathered in the newspapers, we believe that is the general consensus of opinion all over the commonwealth.

OUR DELEGATES

Danville has appointed three delegates to the annual convention of the Virginia League of Municipalities, which takes place at Norfolk early in September. The city will pay their expenses. Money well spent! But who will represent Alexandria at this important convention? Why not let President Smoot appoint a delegate from the Chamber of Commerce? or President Warfield from the Kiwanis Club? or, let Mayor Duncan name a man! Alexandria should assuredly have representation among her sister cities of the Old Dominion at this important convention.

DEAN OF NEWSPAPERS

The Richmond Times-Dispatch is publishing daily the news contained in its columns fifty years ago. The Gazette is going back a hundred and eight years ago to the year 1813, and publishing news of the War of 1812, which was still reddening the land with British and American blood. When Alexandria had a dozen vessels at her docks loading for foreign ports. When Napoleon was fighting all Europe and being driven back, inch by inch, on the road to Elba. When James Madison, of Virginia, was president, and James Monroe, of Virginia, was Secretary of State. When young Henry Clay was speaker of the Lower House of Congress, in the muddy village of Washington. When young John C. Calhoun, of South Carolina, and young Daniel Webster, of Massachusetts, were whetting their juvenile swords for greater clashes in the years to come, in the senate. When the United States was paying tribute to the pirates of Algiers to keep them from preying on its commerce. When youthful Andrew Jackson was gathering his Tennessee squirrel-shooters preparatory to defeating the flower of the English Army fresh from victories under Wellington. When Commodore Perry was sweeping the flag of the haughty British from the Great Lakes. When the enemy sailed up the lordly Potomac and captured Alexandria and Washington.

The Gazette chooses to go back in its files at present only 108 years. Some day it is going further back and will re-publish the news in its columns as the great Washington saw and lived it; and as he read it in the self-same pages of his home paper —the Gazette!

But one or two newspapers in this country approach the antiquity of the Alexandria Gazette. Its files are almost a breathing record of the history of the United States for a century and a half, and it is our purpose, from time to time, to let the voices from out its venerable past speak to the living present. This, it seems to us, will always be interesting and often instructive.

WOMEN OF OTHER LANDS

(For the Gazette.)

Belgian women have been employed in the railway postal and telegraph service since 1882.

Japanese women do the painting and decorating of the thousands of fragile toys that the country exports.

The greatest disgrace that an Arab woman can suffer is not to be able to live in perfect compatibility with her husband's wives.

Egyptian women perform a strange ceremonial dance at funerals which archaeologists have traced back to the ancient ritual for the dead.

Many women in Siam are employed in workshops, in factories, and on the railways and roads, where they are paid the same rates as men for equal work.

When the Ainu women in Japan are growing up, what resembles a mustache is tattooed on their lips, for without this decoration their matrimonial prospects are poor.

An edict against the wearing of short skirts and the displaying of arms has been issued by the city magistrate of Shanghai. In future, offenders will be arrested and fined.

The women of Persia, who, until seventy years ago, were nonentities outside their homes, are now enjoying the same privileges as the men and rapidly rising out of their old-time slavery.

Swiss women who wear short skirts and low-necked gowns will have to pay higher rates of life insurance than those who do not. The shorter the skirt or lower the decollete, the higher the insurance rate will be.

WASHINGTON

mand immediate consideration and so the measure is one of those scheduled to go over until after the recess of Congress.

When President Harding visited a local jewelry store yesterday afternoon, accompanied only by his private secretary, he took back with him to the White House a tiny tissue-wrapped package.

Now the Washington gossips are wondering whether the package contained a present for the President's father, Dr. Harding, recently married, or whether it was intended as some remembrance for the wife of the President. Secretary George Christian is keeping the secret to himself and, naturally, President Harding is taking no one into his confidence with regard to probable benefactor of the purchase.

PIGS IS PIGS, AND SACROSANCT, BUT ITALIAN SKIPPER SIGHS

New York, Aug. 17.—Capt. Louis Vudal, of the Italian freighter Magy Aroszag, which sailed from Brooklyn for Palermo today, has a problem of conduct to solve that is causing him to tear his luxuriant hair and utter many Sicilian oaths.

It is a problem of pigs and what to do about them. Two years ago when the vessel was at Newport News one of the crew brought aboard two pigs, intending to give them to his father in Palermo. Arriving there, he found his father had died. It was then decided to kill and eat the pigs, but Mamma Pig produced a litter of little ones and the execution was stayed. Finally one of the little pigs was killed, but immediately a great storm arose and the boat had a hard time surviving. The crew vowed it was because the pig had been slain. None of the officers or crew would eat a mouthful of the roast pig.

The pigs could not be landed at any Aemrican port because there was no bill of health for them from the port of embarkation. The crew will not permit the officers to kill any of them, and the number has increased to 18 and they are eating the ship out of house and home. The captain believes the only solution will be to bribe some member of the crew to quit when he arrives in Palermo and take the pigs ashore with him.

EDUCATIONAL WORK REDUCES NATION'S TIRE BILL

With the number of automobiles, trucks and motorcycles advanced to the point where there is now one motor vehicle to about every six adults in the country, attention continues to be focussed on the nation's bill for tire abuse and the avenues through which savings can be effected.

Whereas ten years ago, according to data compiled by the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, few tire buyers gave much attention to the need of tire care, today with tire prices at the lowest level in history and with quality never so good, the truck owner and motorist are giving their tire equipment as much attention and considering their tires as of the same relative importance as the vehicle's mechanism or body. This accounts in no small measure for the splendid average mileages now rolled up by good tires for now they are allowed to demonstrate all the worth built into them.

The motorist is realizing with the operator of the pneumatic shod truck, that to allow his tires to run on week after week without checking up to see if the air inflation is at normal, is to run the chances of excessive stretching and heating, for, when soft, the casing runs against a wave in the tread rubber which, under these conditions, will pull away and separate from the tire's carcass. Another little inflation angle is to replace the air at least twice a year. Stale air has a deteriorating effect on the tube, say Firestone service experts.

All statistics gathered by this tire manufacturer tend to show a noticeable decrease in tire abuse. Troubles contended with in the past due to driving in car tracks, curb bumps, wheels out of alignment, neglected cuts, severe application of breaks, mis-application, etc., have been abated to no little extent, thus adding to tire mileage and the enjoyment of motoring, not to mention the decrease in operating costs of both passenger cars and commercial vehicles. Credit for this, says the Firestone Company, may be given to the established tire dealers, who working in co-operation with the manufacturer have been at work for years educating the nation's tire buyers in the money saving advantages of taking care of their tires and showing them how to do so, offering their own services, besides.

Mother Silences Girl for Fear of Mafia.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—The age old fear of the Mafia today sealed the lips of every witness to the murder yesterday of Joseph Sinacola, thirteenth victim of the Nineteenth ward political feud. The widow and her five children all refused to talk, and when a neighbor girl started to tell at the coroner's inquest the name of one of the two slayers her mother sealed her lips with a blow and led her, weeping, from the place

Shiras was brought here by fishermen who found him exhausted and wearing only a shred of a bathing suit. His body had been bruised from contact with the crags.

Prepared for death, Shiras had scratched this farewell message into the rocks with a sharp piece of sand stone:

"Water cold. Lost canoe, August 9. K. L. Shiras. Finis. Love to all at home."

Turn On The Light!

You wake in the night with a start. A nameless dread grips you. A board creaks, a curtain rustles, a shadow creeps. Your flesh crawls, your hair tingles. With a supreme effort, you turn on the light, and—nothing there!

Three years ago this nation was winning great victories. Today a fog of fear is creeping over the land. Those it grips, it paralyzes. Because of it, manufacturers and merchants can not plan sensibly, nor work effectively. They can only worry what may happen if—

Let's face this thing. Turn on the light! . . . . nothing there. Trees are growing, street cars running, people buying bread and clothes and frying pans as of old. And there's a huge crop—new wealth—coming in.

This is no Pollyanna advertisement. Business is not so good as it was, and it isn't going to get better over night. But, by the same token, it IS going to get better, a whole lot better, and just as fast as individual firms make it better for themselves.

Look squarely at the facts, instead of at imaginary hobgoblins. Clear your vision, straighten your thinking. You can not escape the fact that, with a good product at a fair price, the one remedy is strong selling effort. That means advertising. That means good printing.

And that means

PRISONERS OF WAR.

Charleston, Aug. 9, 1813.

The British prisoners of war confined in this place were sent down yesterday afternoon to the Cartel Magnet, in the pilot boat William. Among them were 12 seamen, who have been confined in Gaol nearly a year, as hostages for six seamen who were taken on board American privateers, carried into Nassau, and who were sent to Jamaica to take their trial as subjects of Great Britain. These latter having been since discharged, the hostages are now given up.

EXTRAVAGANT GENERAL!

General Wilkinson arrived in this city last night and departed early this morning. He and his servant occupied the whole stage, with an immense quantity of luggage, amongst which, it is said, there was about 500 weight of segars! His fare to New York was 70 dollars.

POLITICS IN 1813.

The truth flashes conviction on every eye, that political folly or a want of political wisdom must be the cause; that Mr. Madison has mistaken the interest of his country and is incompetent to guide with safety the Vessel of State through the storm of war which is now pouring its fury on her on every side.

An American Doughboy in France

By ELLIOTT F. HOFFMAN

(Historian of Alexandria Post, No. 24, American Legion.)

(For the Alexandria Gazette.)

Meuse-Argonne Offensive

At 5 a. m. the command came to advance and at a five-pace interval we moved cautiously out of the wood to a point on a high knoll overlooking the thick woods in the Argonne Forest, reaching this place about 3.30 p. m. The enemy was well fortified here in concrete trenches and by several series of double barbed wire entanglements, some of which were camouflaged in such a way as to make them almost invisible. Here we rested while our trench mortar company shelled the Germans out of their dug outs into the woods. We fixed our bayonets on the rifles, and with a detail of wire cutters in front we stood awaiting the Captain's signal to charge down he hill through the barbed wire entanglements after the enemy. That was a spectacular, but dreadful sight—those hundreds of doughboys armed to the teeth and with bayonets fixed, forming long lines that stretched for miles through the woods, standing at attention all ready to launch forth against Germany's best troops. It seemed like ages before the command came. Suddenly it sounded! Down the hill into the woods we rushed, with bayonets straight ahead. Each man was his own commanding officer—not a single command came from our officers until we had reached our objective. The tick! tick! tick! of the machine gun was heard. Then the faint call of "Stretcher bearer! Stretcher bearer!" Americans and Germans were dropping to right and left. Our first lieutenant, great big splendid Southerner, was the first to fall, shot through the chest by a machine gun bullet. He still clung to his pistol and continued to cry out "Get 'em boys!" until his voice became too weak to be heard. An Alexandria boy who served as a stretcher bearer helped to carry this brave officer to the rear and when he was placed in the ambulance he still held firmly to his "gat."

On and on we went, scarcely a yard gained without the loss of at least one man. The scene was indescribable—blood everywhere, the delirium and the insane ravings of the wounded and dying heard on every side. It was almost unbearably heart rending and soul sickening. I wonder if any man who was in the terrible Argonne battle can ever hear a mention of war again without visualizing the horrors of that time! A corporal of our squad who, a few minutes before we moved over the top, had said that he had a premonition that he was "going west" was struck in the neck and killed instantly by an explosive machine gun bullet. Another boy just behind the writer was shot through the forehead and the man directly in front was shot in the knee. Only two of the squad escaped. All were victims of the Hun Sniper who came out crying, "Camerade! Camerade! But it was no time for mercy and taking prisoners was not to be thought of, so down he fell with a bullet shot and a bayonet thrust from American doughboys.

Through the woods into an open spot we charged, with German machine gun fire sweeping every inch of space before us. Here and there the big shell holes made our advance possible. Each man would sight a shell hole near him and when he thought the chances were about even he would run for that hole. By these means we gained our objective. It was nightfall when we reached that point and even then the machine gun bullets of the enemy whizzed by our heads like May flies. We withdrew a few yards back into the woods and there dug our holes to sleep in behind trees. Later in the night the company moved to the road to be better fortified for the next day's advance. A few of ou r members were sent out on pat rol duty, while some were sent to the rear to fill the canteens of the company and the others made ready for the advance which was to be begun at daybreak.

Our dead lay around unburied and the moans of the wounded could be heard. But hearts are anaesthetized by war, else no man of even human feeling could live through such experiences as these. The writer was among those sent to fill canteens. We stumbled along through the woods, hands on each other's shoulders, falling over dead bodies and down into shell holes until we reached the valley where the water was obtained. The Germans were shelling the valley, using gas, which made it necessary to don those instruments of torture called gas masks. It was always a question whether you would rather give up to certain death of the gas, or endure the torture of the mask. This time two of our number did not get the protective mask on in time to keep out a whiff of the gas, enough to make it necessary to dispatch them to the hospital. It was nearly daybreak when we got back to the company and we had only time to partake of some corned beef and hard tack and get ready for the drive at daybreak. The Germans were on one side of the road and we on the other not 20 yards apart. Both were ready for the hand to hand fighting which was to begin at daybreak.

Plans Cut $7 Per Capita.

Applying to individual taxpayers the net difference of $790,330,000 between the losses and the gains, Mr. Fordney said they represented a reduction of $7 per capita, "or a saving to the average family of $35 a year."

Since the repeal of the excess profits tax and the reduction of surtax rates on individual incomes do not become effective until 1922, Mr. Fordney said $406,250,000 of the contemplated loss of revenue would not be reflected in revenue collections prior to the calendar year 1923.

Emphasis was laid by the chairman on sections of the new bill designed to prevent tax evasion. He informed the House that under existing law the taxpayer might improperly reduce his surtaxes by changing his fiscal year, thus splitting his annual income in two parts. To prevent such an evasion, he added, the bill provided that in the case of a return from a period of less than one year the net income shall be placed on an annual basis and the surtax properly computed thereon in accordance with the number of the months in such periods.

The Democratic caucus began in the late afternoon and after a recess was continued tonight. Ways and Means Committee Democrats in preparing their minority report, which they have until Friday to file, will make use, it is understood, of especially prepared tables showing comparative taxes under the present law and the Republican measure. They will undertake to show that individuals having incomes ranging from $5,000 to $6,000 a year will pay the same taxes as at present, whereas, those having incomes exceeding $66,000 will get reductions ranging from 1 per cent., to 50 per cent.

The Democratic report also will claim, it is said, that corporations having net profits of from 5 to 10 per cent. will pay as much or more under the proposed 12 1-2 per cent. corporation tax as they do under the excess profits and 10 per cent. corporation taxes, while corporations making 15 per cent. or more will be granted reductions on a graduated scale which will amount in some cases to as much as 65 per cent.

WOMEN IN HOMES AND SOCIETY

Countless women devote their whole lives to their homes, while others are in the business world, or find happiness only in society. Whether you are a home woman, a business woman, or a society woman, you know how hard it is to "drag along" day after day, suffering agonies, caused by some female derangement that has developed from overtaxing your strength. The natural restorative for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly half a century has been considered a standard remedy for woman's ills.

MRS. BISHOP HAD TO BE PROPPED UP

Schoolfield Woman Says Tanlac Has Completely Restored Her To Health.

"I used to think that while Tanlac might help some people it was not equal to a stubborn case of such long standing as mine," said Mrs. J. L. Bishop, 58 Macon St., Schoolfield, Va.

"For fifteen years I suffered from nervous indigestion which kept getting worse until my health broke down completely. I had such difficulty in breathing that I had to be propped up in bed at night on pillows. At all hours of the night I was liable to attacks of nervousness and indigestion, and I had frequent fainting spells, when I didn't know anything or anybody. I took every kind of medicine I could get, but nothing helped me, and soon I got to where I was more dead than alive.

"When I finally decided to try Tanlac I didn't have much hope of its helping me, for I had about lost faith in any medicine doing me any good. But after what it has already done for me I can't help believing in it. My nerves are steady now, my digestion is perfect and every one of my troubles has disappeared. I have gained several pounds in weight, am strong and well and can work all day long and then enjoy a pleasant evening with my friends."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr.

LAUGHS!

"Would you marry a man for money?"
"No," replied Miss Cayenne. "I'd prefer a husband in moderate circumstances to one who is a perpetual flurry about his income tax."—Washington Star.

PLENTY OF PROOF.

From People You Know—From Alexandria Citizens.

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced by evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Alexandria of people who can be seen at any time. Ask your neighbor! Read the following case of it:

C. E. Davis, fireman, truck and engine company No. 1, Alexandria, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a good many years and they have always given me wonderful relief. My trouble was brought on by being out in all kinds of weather and catching colds which settled in my kidneys. Then my back got sore and weak and I could hardly get around. The kidney secretions passed irregularly and made me get up often at night. However, I find I can rely on Doan's Kidney Pills to give me the desired relief. My kidneys have never been in bad condition since I started using Doan's Kidney Pills for those attacks."

READING RAILWAY CO. EXPECTS HARD WINTER

Reading, Pa., Aug. 17.—The Reading Railway is looking forward to a hard winter. In anticipation of a season like that of nearly three years ago, the company has ordered its snow plows overhauled and put into first class condition, ready for the first blizzard that comes along.
Some of them have had little work for two winters, but the mildness of 1920-21 has forewarned the railway executives and they are piling up coal reserves and getting all rolling

Winchester.—The Winchester Star, a daily newspaper which circulates in what is probably one of the most important apple belts in the South, in an editorial which appeared in its issue of August 12, declares the Valley of Virginia "is possibly the best naturally located apple producing section of the entire East," and advises apple growers in the state to "do more and better spraying" to obtain a higher quality fruit.

Winchester.—While Mrs. Nellie Osborne Castleman was battling for her life today in Winchester Memorial Hospital, with a self-inflicted wound in the chest, the body of her little infant son, 7 weeks old, whom she shot and killed yesterday while in a highly nervous condition, was laid away in the graveyard at Berryville, Clarke County. Mrs. Castleman was brought to the hospital yesterday afternoon, and doctors attending her said today she had a good chance to recover from the wound, but that absolute quiet was essential if she is to recover her normal mind.

VIRGINIA ELKS ENDORSE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA FOR MEDICAL SCHOOL SITE

Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 17.—Vigorous resolutions protesting against the removal of the medical school to Richmond and the dismemberment of the University of Virginia were passed by the Virginia State Reunion Association of the B. P. O. Elks, representing some ten thousand members of their order and citizens of the commonwealth, at their meeting in Charlottesville last week. The resolutions were introduced by Fred W. Harper, of Lynchburg, former Exalted Ruler of the National Order.
The Elks equipped and financed Base Hospital No. 41, which was organized and recruited at the University of Virginia, and which made a splendid record during its service in France.
The resolutions follows:
Whereas the Virginia State Reunion Association of the B. P. O. Elks comprises the subordinate lodges of the Order of Elks in this State and represents a membership of nearly ten thousand loyal and patriotic Americans and citizens of Virginia; and
Whereas, the Association and its membership in Virginia are not only interested in all that concerns the welfare of the State and its institutions, but feel a peculiar interest in the Medical School of the University of Virginia, whose splendid Base Hospital Unit, No. 41, which made such a magnificent record in the World War, was equipped and financed by the Order of Elks; and
Whereas, in the opinion of the Association it would be most unwise to disrupt the unity of the University organization by removing any of its schools from the seat of the University itself;
Now, therefore, Be It Resolved by the Virginia State Reunion Association of the B. P. O. Elks, in annual session assembled:
1. That it opposes most vigorously the proposal to remove the University Medical School to Richmond or to any other city;
2. That such a dismemberment of the University would, in the opinion of this Association, be disastrous to the institution and would impair its usefulness and prestige to a degree beyond calculation;
3. That the members of the Order of Elks in Virginia are urged in all appropriate ways to endeavor to prevent the proposed removal of the University Medical School, as an act comparable with the act of the Order in equipping and financing its Base Hospital Unit, No. 41, and as a definite service to the University and the State of Virginia.

PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Audrey E. Nalls And Mr. A. H. Spivey Married at Del Ray M. E. Church

A very beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony took place at the Del Ray Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Audrey E. Nalls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald J. Nalls, became the bride of Mr. Aubrey Harris Spivey, of Braddock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Raymond Wood in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The church was very attistically decorated with palms and cut flowers. A nuptial musical program composed of a vocal solo, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Mrs. John Gary, aunt of the bride; and vocal solo, "Because" by Miss Harper, of Washington, D. C. The Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" was sung by six classmates of the bride just before the entrance of the bridal procession to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Dora Varney, aunt of the birde. Misses Harper, Garrett. Kidwell, Smith, Glascock and Carr composed the chorus; they were dressed in white and wore corsage bouquets of Sweetheart roses. The ushers were Messrs. Tyler, Wilkinson, Robert and Ralph Saffell, who led the bridal procession to the altar where they were met by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. George Carr. Miss Dorothy Carpenter was maid of honor and wore a charming gown of orchid organdie with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Lorinne Spivey, sister of the groom, and Miss Eliazbeth Varney, cousin of the bride, wore gowns and picture hats of pink, and green organdie and carried arm bouquets of Sweetheart roses. Little Miss Margaret Feagan was flower girl, and Master Wentworth Nalls, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. June Varney and Edna Keys, two dainty little misses, came in advance of the bridal party and threw open the gates which had been placed across the aisle instead of ribbon and through which the procession passed to the altar, then fell in nline at the end, making a most effective and beautiful grouping. The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore an evening gown of white Pershing satin, trimmed with opalescent lace, her veil of tulle was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of brides roses. An informal reception at the home of the bride followed, and the bridal couple were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Archibald Nalls, mother of the bride, who wore black statin, veiled in black chantilly lace, and Mrs. Henry Spivey, mother of the groom, who wore an embroidered black satin gown, also Mrs. Clifford Wayland, sister of the groom, and Mrs. John Gary. Mr. Spivey and his bride left later for their wedding trip. The bride is traveling in a modish suit dress of dark blue Canton crepe, with hat to match. They will visit Niagara Falls and points of interest in Canada. They will be at home after September the 4th at Braddock. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful gifts.

WARFARE MAY SOON OPEN AGAIN IN IRELAND

Dublin, Aug. 17.—Eamonn de Valera, head of the Sinn Fein governmet, today turned down the English peace proposals. This action had been foreshadowed in his defiant speech of Tuesday opening Dail Eireann, when he said that the Sinn Fein insisted upon an Irish republic and could ot negotiate with the English government because it had no principle.

"We cannot and will not accept the English peace terms," said De Valera in a address to the members "The Irish people are not going to be fooled this time. Ireland has not been offered dominion status. The Almighty placed Ireland as the neighbor of Britain and the Irish desired to be neighborly, and if Britain were wise she would be friendly. We do not desire to close up England's routes to the sea.'"

De Valera, Michael Collins, commander-in-chief, of the Irish Republican army, and Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein, occupied the "ministerial bench" in the front row of the meeting.

"We are prepared to make any sacrifices toward Ulster to make Ireland one whole nation and to prevent partition," De Valera declared.

WILSON SPENDS SEVERAL HOURS IN HIS LAW OFFICE IN CAPITAL

Washington, Aug. 17.—Former President Wilson has so far recovered his health and physical strength that he spent the greater part of yesterday afterncon at his law offices in this city in consultation with his partner, fromer Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby. It is stated that two important clients also were present, and that Mr. Wilson applied himself to the business in hand with a vigor that surprised those with whom he was in conference.

It is not expected that the former President will appear in open court in the near future, if at all. He has been admitted, however, to practice in the courts of the District of Columbia and of New York, and also in the Supreme Court of the United States. His Washington offices are located on F street, in the building formerly occupied by the United States Shipping Board.

SERBIAN MONARCH'S STORMY LIFE ENDS

Belgrade, Jugo-Slavia, Aug. 17. King Peter, of Serbia, died today at the age of 76 years. He was suffering from the infirmities of age and wounds of three or more wars. King Peter relinquished the cares of state in 1919, when his second son, Crown Prince Alexander, succeeded him and became the ruler of the new state of Jugo-Slavia.

Despite his age, King Peter presented one of the most courageous figures of the war. On the day that Serbia rejected the Austrian demands Peter renounced his temporary abdication of the throne and placed himself once more at the head of the country. He was even then almost sightless and hard of hearing and was under the care of a physician.

When the fortunes of war turned against the Serbians he remained with his armies till practically the last units had been driven from the country. He then effected an escape through Albania and went to Salonaiki, where he presided over the reorganization of his forces. Afterward he went to Corfu, where he established headquarters and took an active part in the direction of his nomadic Government.

Forced from his capital, Belgrade, and thence from Nish by the advancing army of the Central Powers in 1915, his country laid waste by fire and shell, Peter lived to return to Serbia and engage actively in the reorganization and reconstruction of his domains. From the beginning of the conflict the aged King encouraged his troops and people and on several occasions personally led the Serbs into battle.

MARION SITUATION MEANS DEATH FIGHT, UNIONS SAY

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 17.—With the situation growing out of establishment of new working conditions in the Erie Railroad shops here and their subsequent operation by the railway service company, characterized by union officials as a life and death fight for the principle of unionism, former shop employes of the railroad today sought to have some light thrown upon their status under the Esch-Cummins act.

Former shopmen, whose connection with the Erie Company was severed when they refused to comply with orders establishing the 10 hour day, discontinuing Sunday over time pay and requiring physical examinations, and who have not yet accepted employment with the new operating concern, today laid their case before B. M. Jewell, head of the Railway Employes' Department of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Jewell was asked in a letter to take the matter up with the Railroad Labor Board and request that the present status of the men be defined.

DEMAND FOR GRAPES PROVES OVERWHELMING.

Fredericksburg, Aug. 17.—L. P. Graves, who has a vineyard on his farm near Fredericksburg, put an advertisement in a local paper offering grapes for sale. Orders came from many counties, cities and States for grapes. He was swamped with mail each day. He had to put in another advertisement stating he could fill no more orders, and would fill those received in order to the extent of his supply. The great demand for grapes has given the impression that wine-making is popular this year.

MYSTERY BALL OF FIRE SEEN FLOATING IN HEAVEN

Baltimore, Aug. 17.—A ball of fire, described as appearing "taree times the size of a full moon," made its appearance last night to the northeast of Forest Park. It arose above the housetops and as it disappeared illuminated the entire northeastern sky.

Persons who witnessed the strange sight became awe-stricken. The illumination lasted only a moment. Those seeing it waited for a reappearance, but were disappointed.

Prof. Claude H. Hall, Jr., chairman of the astronomical section of the Maryland Academy of Science, said it may have been a meteor, and if it was celestial at all he had no doubt that it was. Professor Hall was at the Academy of Science at the time and said the illimination had not been reported there.

WEAK WOMEN

cannot hope ever to become strong and well again unless they have plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalize wornout, exhausted nerves and give you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. At all druggists. Beware of substitutes The genuine has N.I. stamped on every tablet. Always insist on having the genuine.

PAPERMAKERS' WAGE CUT.

New York, Aug. 17.—Wage reductions ranging from 10 per cent for skilled men to 25 per cent. for common labor today were agreed upon by the board of dispute between union paper mill workers and eleven newsprint manufacturing companies.

The award, which fixed 40 cents an hour rate for outside common labor, affect about 12,000 workers, and will become effective August 22. The International Paper Company was not a party to the agreement.

A slightly lower rate, it was stated, was fixed for bag factories, craft and specialty papermills. The argreement will continue in effect to May 1. 1922. but is subject to reopening by either party after December 1.

THE U. S. NOBBY TREAD

Where the going is specially heavy with snow, mud or sand, in hilly country where maximum traction on the road is a factor, no other tire tread yet devised is quite so effective, or so wholly approved by motoring opinion, as the U. S. Nobby Tread.

Its very simplicity—three rows of diagonal knobs, gripping the road—is the result of all the years of U. S. Rubber experience with every type of road the world over.

If every one listened to experience, how much they'd save

"Stop and talk to the next man you see with U. S. Tires on his car."

STOP and talk to the next man you see with U. S. Tires on his car. Ask him why.

Most likely you'll hear an interesting story about his tire experiments—before the answer was found. Money wasted. Promises unkept. Trouble on the road—humorous to every one except the man who went through it.

Finally U. S. Tires. And U. S. Tires ever since.

Perhaps it's the experience of U. S. Tire buyers that makes them more emphatic in their preference than ever this year.

When these men have tried most everything by the way of "staggering bargains", "hurrah discounts", "discontinued lines at less" and so forth they know what not to get.

They want a fresh, live tire. With a good reputation. That's everything it says it is. With the people behind it who back it up.

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches.

Your local U. S. Dealer is drawing upon them continually to keep his stocks sized up, complete—to give you service.

Whenever he gets one or a hundred tires from a U. S. Factory Branch, they are newly made this season's tires.

Sold to you at a net price. Full values. Square-dealing. A reputable maker. A reputable dealer. The whole transaction as befits the leadership of the oldest and largest rubber organization in the world.
